Division of State Police

Colonel Paul F. O'Leary
Director

July 31, 1984

Once again, our publication of "Crime in New Hampshire" reflects a significant reduction in crime. However, even with statistics showing favorable downward trends, it must be noted there were 32,362 serious crimes reported in New Hampshire in 1983. We must be concerned with this overall total. Law enforcement, as well as the general public, should not be willing to accept crime as commonplace in our state and nation.

Accurate crime statistics are essential to the criminal justice system and our citizenry. The New Hampshire State Police gratefully acknowledges the efforts of the contributing law enforcement agencies throughout the state which make the Uniform Crime Report Program productive and successful.

Additionally, special recognition is extended to the FBI for the continued support to our state program. This spirit of cooperation is most appreciated and is vital to the achievement of the program.

Director

DOMESTIC ASSAULT

In 1979, the General Court mandated the Director of State Police to present an annual report to them concerning the nature and extent of domestic violence in our State. It was decided to collect this data in conjunction with the UCR program by adding a relationship category to the information collected in assaults. The following chart indicates the relationship of the offender to the victim along with the type of weapon used in aggravated assaults and the number of simple assaults for 1983:

	RELATIONSHIP
